THE WEEKEND STARTS HERE!

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A swinging 60 s novel from the pen of Don Bull. Cecil Rhodes said, to be born English is to have won first prize in the lottery of life. Probably true in Victorian times but to be a teenager in 1960 s England was to win the Football Pools, the Premium Bond Jackpot and the Reville Newspaper Night Out with Lulu Competition all rolled into one. Those too young to remember the 60 s will find themselves cursing their tardy genes. Those that suffered the geographical misfortune to find themselves living around Kings Road Chelsea will rue missing out on being part of the Bearwood Scene. It s the late 1960 s and Daniel Bell whose existence has been one of understated contentment until now, shows signs of bursting into life. Daniel fortuitously meets up with the girl of his dreams Julie Rogers, after not seeing her for a few years and to his total amazement they begin to go out together. Meanwhile Daniel s best mate Dave has even more unbelievably started seeing a girl from an aristocratic background who appears to entertain working class aspirations. Much of the action centres on Daniel, Dave and the other five members of their clique Phil, Johnny, Gary, Bill and Steve. Their interests are football, music and girls and they pursue all three with varying degrees of enthusiasm. Although the story is based around the love affair between Daniel and Julie, I realised as I was writing it that it was really a much more basic and often ignored love story between a gang of lads who spent more time together than they ever did with their girlfriends. It s...
