Theodore Morgan to the Public Service Corporation of Long Island, represented by Henry MacDonald, president, on July 7. It comprises 77.81 feet on Main St. and is 100 feet deep, with 100 ft. front on Monroe St. This is the present location of the gas office and its central location appeals to the company by reason of convenience to patrons. The property is in charge of F. B. Smith for renting, etc. Bids for the buildings for the State Agricultural School at Farmingdale were received up to July 14, and will be opened August 8. This bid completes the plant, and includes a dormitory to hold 50 boys, and five cottages, each holding eight girls; a power house. power plant, water supply and sewage disposal, estimated to cost $175,000. The contract for the first three buildings was awarded to Rufus H. Brown for $76,000, and work began upon them a short time ago. The sum of $340,000 will be spent on buildings, and $15,000 has been voted for supplies and maintenance, available Oct. 1, 1915. A. A. Johnson has been chosen director, and is at work among the farmers of Nassau and Suffolk counties. Charles L. Lay. former landscape architect. New York City, advocates the more extensive establishment of parks in American cities. The cost of such improvements is readily offset by the increased value of the land adjoining the parks, which would augment the tax returns to the city. The sections within the city...
