Sarahs Grace: My Journey From Pitiful To Powerful, is sure to bring an instant dose of hope to all who read it! You will cry, you will laugh; but more than anything, you will be inspired and encouraged! In this book Sarah gives us a peek into the many ups and downs she has experienced in her journey through life. She starts with sharing from her earliest years and brings readers all the way up to her present day life. Sarahs story begins with chronic illness, molestation, chronic depression, drug and alcohol abuse and more. Her story continues all the way into her most recent years, where she suffered the devastating end of her eleven year marriage leaving her practically homeless and eventually completely broke with seven biological children and few people left in her life to help. She then brings us all the way to her present day, where she is now a published author, entrepreneur, sought out speaker and the list goes on. Sarah shares how she was able to become so successful in spite of the odds stacked...
