Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Buffalo High Schools: 1898-99 Dear Sir - The past year has been one of activity, growth and progress. Life here is never dull and, even if we wished, it would be impossible to remain in common-place ruts. There are so many stirring events, so strong a school spirit, so many worthy ambitions in the intellectual and the athletic field, and so powerful a stimulus of a proud history, that the very momentum and inspiration of it all carries the school forward on its honorable career. There is now also the added wholesome stimulus in our friendly and generous rival, the Masten Park High School. You will be glad to know that the most cordial relations exist between the two schools. I addressed the Masten Park High School, on invitation of the school and faculty, and was received with warm and genuine pleasure. Mr. Fosdick accepted a similar invitation from us, and was accorded such sincere and hearty demonstrations of welcome as would make any speaker proud and happy. The two high schools, working in sympathy and with singleness of purpose, hope to make their work and achievements worthy of this great city, and worthy of the confidence and expectation of a tax-paying public.
