The donations to the library for the year have been received from one hundred and ninety-four individuals, and eighty-four societies and governmental departments. The exchanges, from ten individuals and one hundred and ninety-six societies and incorporated institutions, of which ninety-five are foreign; also from editors and publishers. Among the donations may be mentioned about 200 volumes from each of the following: --Misses E. C. and M. C. Allen, Mr. O. W. H. Upham and Mrs. S. K. Whipple of Newburyport, besides over 6,000 pamphlets and serials from the latter. The librarian regrets to be obliged to announce the death of the assistant librarian, Miss Eva K. Roberts. She took a great interest in the affairs of the library, knew what it possessed and what it lacked, and her suggestions with regard to it were always valuable. Faithful and conscientious, and with a love for her work, her death is a great loss to the library and to the Institute. The present want of additional space for the storing of books, not only at the Institute but at the Public Library,...
